PREFACE.

The Registers of the Parish of Rillington (with Scampston), here reproduced, are as follows :

- I. (a) Baptisms 1638-92. Marriages 1638-91. Burials 1638-71. There is a certain amount of confusion in this volume.
- II. Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, all three entered together under the particular year, 1686-1769.
- III Burials and Baptisms 1769-96, with a copy of the Scampston Register of Baptisms from 1783, in which year separate Registers were instituted.
- IV Marriages 1754-1803.
- V. Burials and Baptisms 1797-1812.

These registers were transcribed some years ago by the late Mr. A. J. Cholmley, B.A. Unfortunately he did not live to see the publication of his work which has been waiting its turn amongst the transcripts of the Society. Like all our old registers, before set forms were made compulsory, these registers contain many side-lights on parish life :—strange Christian names, Allectius, Prothezia, Seizia, Choicea, Newyear, Union and Vienna the election of the parish clerk (8), marriages before a justice of the peace (21-22), briefs (35), trouble with the steeple (50), interesting facts about the living, and the Church, the baptism of a Quaker, various matters concerning enclosures (107) and so forth.

We have to thank the Rev. J. Paul Cable, Vicar of Rillington, for permission to print.

Whereas the Nine Crofts in the Ratten Row on the East being every one originally Front Steads paying by immemorial Custom, Six Pence or one Hen to the Vicarage of Rillington, and whereas the Commissioners in the late Inclosure had so mixed the said Front Steads, that it became necessary to have the Premises viewed by the Homage Jury in order to set out and adjust each Mans Proportion and this below is their said Verdict

That Robert Simpkin pays for 4 Crofts.

Rillington July 24, 1809.

At a Vestry meeting held on the day aforesaid it was agreed by a majority of Parishioners that the Churchwardens of Rillington & Scampston shall procure accurate estimates & plans from able workmen to ascertain the expences of putting on the Church of Rillington a new roof of Westmoreland Slate, and having the whole church thoroughly and sufficiently repaired—and that if such Workmen will enter into strict agreements and security to execute the same for the value of the old Materials and present roof of lead, that the Churchwardens are empowered to proceed to the execution of the same,—But if the expence shall on just enquiry be found to exceed the value of the old Materials, that the estimates & plans shall be referred to a future vestry meeting for their approbation as to which plan shall be adopted.
